Mike,

Sorry I missed you today. I understand you are traveling with the Congressman, but when you get a chance can you take a look at the attached resolution commemorating the 30th anniversary of the Taiwan Relations Act? It is being sponsored by Congresswoman Shelley Berkley. Sen. D'Amato, for whom I work at Park Strategies, would very much appreciate it if the Congressman would agree to co-sponsor the resolution. The Senator noted that the Congressman has been most supportive of a positive US relationship with Taiwan. If you wish to add the Congressman's name to the co-sponsorship list, please call Jeremy Kadden in Cong. Berkley's office 202 225 5965. Thanks for your consideration of this request. Safe return home.

Commemorating the 30th anniversary of the Taiwan Relations Act

Whereas April 10, 2009 will mark the 30th anniversary of the enactment of the Taiwan Relations Act (Public Law 96-8), codifying in law the basis for continued commercial, cultural, and other relations between the United States and the Republic of China(Taiwan);

Whereas when the Taiwan Relations Act was enacted, it affirmed that the United States decision to establish diplomatic relations with the People's Republic of China was based on the expectation that the future of Taiwan would be determined by peaceful means;

Whereas the Taiwan Relations Act makes it a policy of the United States to provide defense articles and defense services in such quantity as may be necessary to enable Taiwan to maintain a sufficient self-defense capability;

Whereas the Taiwan Relations Act also makes it a policy of the United States to maintain the capacity to resist any resort to force or other forms of coercion that would jeopardize the security, or the social or economic system, of the people of Taiwan;

Whereas Taiwan's democracy has deepened with the second peaceful transfer of power from one political party to another after the presidential election in March 2008;

Whereas the relationship between the United States and Taiwan has strengthened with —

- (a) Taiwan's evolution into a free society and a full-fledged, multi-party democracy;
- (b) the development of Taiwan's robust free-market economy, with Taiwan becoming the 9th largest trading partner of the United States in 2007 and imports from the United States in that year totaling over $26 billion;
- (c) Taiwan's determined effort and collaboration with the United States to combat global terrorism, as demonstrated in part by its participation in the Container Security Initiative and its generous contribution to the Pentagon Memorial Fund; and
- (d) the leadership role Taiwan has demonstrated in addressing transnational and global challenges, including its active engagement in humanitarian relief measures, public health endeavors, environmental protection initiatives, and financial market stabilization efforts.;

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That —

John,
Thanks for taking the time to speak with me this afternoon concerning the 30th Anniversary of the Taiwan Relations Act. As I indicated on the phone, we represent the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office ("TECRO") in the United States, for which we are registered agents under the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

To mark the 30th Anniversary of the passage of the TRA, we are seeking Leader Hoyer's support for the attached resolution which marks the event and reaffirms the United States' commitment to Taiwan. Congresswoman Shelley Berkley (D-Nev), Democratic Co-Chair of the House Taiwan Caucus is the resolution's original sponsor – Jeremy Kadden, LD in Cong. Berkley's office, is her point person on this resolution.

Also, as discussed, I've attached the details for the 30th Anniversary Reception which is being hosted by Jason Yuan, the Taiwan Special Representative to the US, on March 26th at 4pm in the Lyndon Johnson Room. We would be grateful if the Leader could find time on his schedule to drop in to visit with Representative Yuan.

Lastly, we would like to gauge Leader Hoyer's potential interest in leading or attending a CODEL to Taiwan the week of May 25th.

Again, I appreciate your consideration and time. Should you have any questions concerning the above or attached, please don't hesitate to contact me at the below contact information.

Best regards,
Chris.

Taiwan Relations Act
30th Anniversary Reception

March 26th, 2009

U.S. Capitol, Lyndon B. Johnson Room (S-211)

CRM/CES/REGISTRATION UNIT

In April of this year, the United States and the Republic of China (Taiwan) will mark the 30th anniversary of the Taiwan Relations Act (TRA). In light of this historic occasion, we hope you will join us at a reception celebrating the U.S.-Taiwan partnership on March 26th from 4 P.M. to 6 P.M., in the Lyndon B. Johnson Room (S-211) of the United States Capitol.

The United States Congress took the initiative in 1979 to enact this landmark legislation, both to codify our bilateral relations and advance the mutual security and commercial interests of our two governments. Passed by overwhelming majorities in both the House of Representatives and the Senate and strongly supported by every U.S. Administration since then, the TRA has served as a solid foundation for U.S.-Taiwan relations and has successfully contributed to the preservation of peace and stability in the Taiwan Strait.

The security provided by the TRA also allowed Taiwan to develop into the strong democratic and economic leader that it is today. With these and other joint efforts, the United States and Taiwan have engendered ties that are as strong today as at any time since passage of the TRA. We therefore hope you will join us on March 26th as we recognize the thirtieth anniversary of this landmark legislation.

Mr. Garvey,

My name is Sean King. I work at Park Strategies, LLC, a business advisory firm managed by former U.S. Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato. I know you've worked in the past with my Washington, D.C.-based colleague, Kraig Siracuse.

As you may know, this year marks the 30th anniversary of the Taiwan Relations Act (TRA). To commemorate this anniversary, Park Strategies is working with the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office in the United States to gather signatures for the attached joint letter. As background, Park Strategies, LLC and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office in the United States.

I'm not sure if this should go to you, or to someone in Senator Lugar's personal office. But given Kraig's relationship with you, I wanted to first send you it. If Senator Lugar wishes to sign the letter, you and/or somebody in his personal office can contact Anthony Lazarski@inchofe.senate.gov, or Sarah Klotz@inchofe.senate.gov in Senator James Inchofe' office, tel. Dear Mr. President:

The United States has maintained a unique and close partnership with Taiwan for over 60 years. Taiwan is one of our strongest allies in Asia and has become a beacon of democracy and economic growth in a rapidly evolving and vital region for the United States.

On April 10, the United States and Taiwan will commemorate an important milestone in our longstanding relationship as we mark the thirtieth anniversary of the Taiwan Relations Act (TRA). This legislation provides an institutional framework and legal basis for our continued relations after the end of formal diplomatic ties. The TRA guaranteed America's support for Taiwan's self-defense capability, and pledged to resist any resort to force or coercion that would jeopardize Taiwan. This unprecedented legislation has helped keep peace and stability in Asia, and has allowed a highly productive relationship between our governments to grow and prosper.

The United States and Taiwan have brought about ties that are as strong today as at any time since passage of the TRA. Consequently, we hope you will join us in recognizing the 30th anniversary of this landmark legislation and in expressing our nation's continued support for freedom, security and prosperity for the people of Taiwan.

Dear Mr. President:

The United States has maintained a unique and close partnership with Taiwan for over 60 years. Taiwan is one of our strongest allies in Asia and has become a beacon of democracy and economic growth in a rapidly evolving and vital region for the United States.

On April 10, the United States and Taiwan will commemorate an important milestone in our longstanding relationship as we mark the thirtieth anniversary of the Taiwan Relations Act (TRA). This legislation provides an institutional framework and legal basis for our continued relations after the end of formal diplomatic ties. The TRA guaranteed America's support for Taiwan's self-defense capability, and pledged to resist any resort to force or coercion that would jeopardize Taiwan. This unprecedented legislation has helped keep peace and stability in Asia, and has allowed a highly productive relationship between our governments to grow and prosper.

The United States and Taiwan have brought about ties that are as strong today as at any time since passage of the TRA. Consequently, we hope you will join us in recognizing the 30th anniversary of this landmark legislation and in expressing our nation's continued support for freedom, security and prosperity for the people of Taiwan.

Sincerely,

2009 MAR 10 PM 1:37

This year marks the 30th anniversary of the Taiwan Relations Act (TRA). In the absence of formal diplomatic relations, this landmark legislation forms the basis for U.S. relations with democratic Taiwan, while also maintaining peace and stability in the Taiwan Strait.

A resolution is being co-sponsored by Congresswomen Shelley Berkley and Ileana Ros-Lehtinen to commemorate this anniversary. We request that you consider adding the Congressman as a co-sponsor.

Park Strategies, LLC and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (TECRO) in the United States.

Thanks for your consideration of this request.
